Conditions of participation

<https://reg.devoxx.fr/assets/legal.html>

The participation to Devoxx France is possible as soon as your payment has been received. An identification badge is mandatory to access the Conference area, as well as the Exhibition area. Any person without a badge will be refused access to the Conference. In case of overcrowding, and for security reasons, the organizers reserve the right to deny access to conference rooms. The internal rules of the conference area apply without reservation to all participants (no smoking in the areas) The organizers reserve the right to permanently exclude any person, without any right to reimbursement, whose behavior or attitude is deemed unacceptable. Devoxx France is organized in an open spirit that allows everyone to participate. The organizers are vigilant about the smooth running of the conference. Speakers are informed that their presentation must not shock and respect all participants. Any breach of propriety, or any event that could disrupt the conference can be reported immediately to the organizers on the site or by email to info@devoxx.fr
